Policy Adopted: August 26, 1999
Implementation Documents Approved: October 24, 1999

Notes:

- 1. This policy is now in effect. See www.icann.org/udrp/udrp-schedule.htm for the implementation schedule.

- 2. This policy has been adopted by all ICANN-accredited registrars. It has also been adopted by certain managers of country-code top-level domains (e.g., .nu, .tv, .ws).

- 3. The policy is between the registrar (or other registration authority in the case of a country-code top-level domain) and its customer (the domain-name holder or registrant). Thus, the policy uses "we" and "our" to refer to the registrar and it uses

"you" and "your" to refer to the domain-name holder.

▼ Domain Name Dispute Resolution	1. Purpose. This Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (the "Policy") has been adopted by the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers ("ICANN"), is incorporated by reference into your Registration Agreement, and sets forth the terms and conditions in connection with a dispute between you and any party other than us (the registrar) over the registration and use of an Internet domain name registered by you. Proceedings under Paragraph 4 of this Policy will be conducted according to the Rules for Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (the "Rules of Procedure"), which are available at http://www.icann.org/en/dndr/udrp/uniform-rules.htm, and the selected administrative-dispute-resolution service provider's supplemental rules.
▶ Charter Eligibility Dispute Resolution Policy	2. Your Representations. By applying to register a domain name, or by asking us to maintain or renew a domain name registration, you hereby represent and warrant to us that (a) the statements that you made in your Registration Agreement are complete and accurate; (b) to your knowledge, the registration of the domain name will not infringe upon or otherwise violate the rights of any third party; (c) you are not registering the domain name for an unlawful purpose; and (d) you will not knowingly use the domain name in violation of any applicable laws or regulations. It is your responsibility to determine whether your domain name registration infringes or violates someone else's rights.

 - c. our receipt of a decision of an Administrative Panel requiring such action in any administrative proceeding to which you were a party and which was conducted under this Policy or a later version of this Policy adopted by ICANN. (See Paragraph 4\(i\) and \(k\) below.)

Providers We may also cancel, transfer or otherwise make changes to a domain name registration in accordance with the terms of your Provider Approval Process Registration Agreement or other legal requirements.

Rules 4. Mandatory Administrative Proceeding.

Principal Documents This Paragraph sets forth the type of disputes for which you are required to submit to a mandatory administrative proceeding.

Proceedings These proceedings will be conducted before one of the administrative-dispute-resolution service providers listed at www.icann.org/en/dndr/udrp/approved-providers.htm (each, a "Provider").

Historical Documents Timeline

- ▶ Name Collision
 - a. Applicable Disputes. You are required to submit to a mandatory administrative proceeding in the event that a third party (a "complainant") asserts to the applicable Provider, in compliance with the Rules of Procedure, that

- Registrar Problems
 - (i) your domain name is identical or confusingly similar to a trademark or service mark in which the complainant has rights; and

- Whois Data Correction
 - (ii) you have no rights or legitimate interests in respect of the domain name; and

- Independent Review Process
 - (iii) your domain name has been registered and is being used in bad faith.

Request for Reconsideration

In the administrative proceeding, the complainant must prove that each of these three elements are present.

b. Evidence of Registration and Use in Bad Faith.

For the purposes of Paragraph 4\(a\)\(iii\), the following circumstances, in particular but without limitation, if found by the Panel to be present, shall be evidence of the registration and use of a domain name in bad faith:

(i) circumstances indicating that you have registered or you have acquired the domain name primarily for the purpose of selling, renting, or otherwise transferring the domain name registration to the complainant who is the owner of the trademark or service mark or to a competitor of that complainant, for valuable consideration in excess of your documented out-of-pocket costs directly related to the domain name; or

(ii) you have registered the domain name in order to prevent the owner of the trademark or service mark from reflecting the mark in a corresponding domain name, provided that you have engaged in a pattern of such conduct; or

(iii) you have registered the domain name primarily for the purpose of disrupting the business of a competitor; or

(iv) by using the domain name, you have intentionally attempted to attract, for commercial gain, Internet users to your web site or other on-line location, by creating a likelihood of confusion with the complainant's mark as to the source, sponsorship, affiliation, or endorsement of your web site or location or of a product or service on your web site or location.

c. How to Demonstrate Your Rights to and Legitimate Interests in the Domain Name in Responding to a Complaint. When you receive a complaint, you should refer to Paragraph 5 of the Rules of Procedure in determining how your response should be prepared. Any of the following circumstances, in particular but without limitation, if found by the Panel to be proved based on its evaluation of all evidence presented, shall demonstrate your rights or legitimate interests to the domain name for purposes of Paragraph 4\(a\)\(ii\):

(i) before any notice to you of the dispute, your use of, or demonstrable preparations to use, the domain name or a name corresponding to the domain name in connection with a bona fide offering of goods or services; or

(ii) you (as an individual, business, or other organization) have been commonly known by the domain name, even if you have acquired no trademark or service mark rights; or

(iii) you are making a legitimate noncommercial or fair use of the domain name, without intent for commercial gain to misleadingly divert consumers or to tarnish the trademark or service mark at issue.

d. Selection of Provider. The complainant shall select the Provider from among those approved by ICANN by submitting the complaint to that Provider. The selected Provider will administer the proceeding, except in cases of consolidation as described in Paragraph 4\(f\).

e. Initiation of Proceeding and Process and Appointment of Administrative Panel. The Rules of Procedure state the process for initiating and conducting a proceeding and for appointing the panel that will decide the dispute (the "Administrative Panel").

f. Consolidation. In the event of multiple disputes between you and a complainant, either you or the complainant may petition to consolidate the disputes before a single Administrative Panel. This petition shall be made to the first Administrative Panel appointed to hear a pending dispute between the parties. This Administrative Panel may consolidate before it any or all such disputes in its sole discretion, provided that the disputes being consolidated are governed by this Policy or a later version of this Policy adopted by ICANN.

g. Fees. All fees charged by a Provider in connection with any dispute before an Administrative Panel pursuant to this Policy shall be paid by the complainant, except in cases where you elect to expand the Administrative Panel from one to three panelists as provided in Paragraph 5\(b\)\(iv\) of the Rules of Procedure, in which case all fees will be split evenly by you and the complainant.

h. Our Involvement in Administrative Proceedings. We do not, and will not, participate in the administration or conduct of any proceeding before an Administrative Panel. In addition, we will not be liable as a result of any decisions rendered by the Administrative Panel.

i. Remedies. The remedies available to a complainant pursuant to any proceeding before an Administrative Panel shall be limited to requiring the cancellation of your domain name or the transfer of your domain name registration to the complainant.

j. Notification and Publication. The Provider shall notify us of any decision made by an Administrative Panel with respect to a domain name you have registered with us. All decisions under this Policy will be published in full over the Internet, except when an Administrative Panel determines in an exceptional case to redact portions of its decision.

k. Availability of Court Proceedings. The mandatory administrative proceeding requirements set forth in Paragraph 4 shall not prevent either you or the complainant from submitting the dispute to a court of competent jurisdiction for independent resolution before such mandatory administrative proceeding is commenced or after such proceeding is concluded. If an Administrative Panel decides that your domain name registration should be canceled or transferred, we will wait ten (10) business days (as observed in the location of our principal office) after we are informed by the applicable Provider of the Administrative Panel's decision before implementing that decision. We will then implement the decision unless we have received from you during that ten (10) business day period official documentation (such as a copy of a complaint, file-stamped by the clerk of the court) that you have commenced a lawsuit against the complainant in a jurisdiction to which the complainant has submitted under Paragraph 3\(b\)\(xiii\) of the Rules of Procedure. (In general, that jurisdiction is either the location of our principal office or of your address as shown in our Whois database. See Paragraphs 1 and 3\(b\)\(xiii\) of the Rules of Procedure for details.) If we receive such documentation within the ten (10) business day period, we will not implement the Administrative Panel's decision, and we will take no further action, until we receive (i) evidence satisfactory to us of a resolution between the parties; (ii) evidence satisfactory to us that your lawsuit has been dismissed or withdrawn; or (iii) a copy of an order from such court dismissing your lawsuit or ordering that you do not have the right to continue to use your domain name.

5. All Other Disputes and Litigation. All other disputes between you and any party other than us regarding your domain name registration that are not brought pursuant to the mandatory administrative proceeding provisions of Paragraph 4 shall be resolved between you and such other party through any court, arbitration or other proceeding that may be available.

6. Our Involvement in Disputes. We will not participate in any way in any dispute between you and any party other than us regarding the registration and use of your domain name. You shall not name us as a party or otherwise include us in any such proceeding. In the event that we are named as a party in any such proceeding, we reserve the right to raise any and all defenses deemed appropriate, and to take any other action necessary to defend ourselves.

7. Maintaining the Status Quo. We will not cancel, transfer, activate, deactivate, or otherwise change the status of any domain name registration under this Policy except as provided in Paragraph 3 above.

8. Transfers During a Dispute.

a. Transfers of a Domain Name to a New Holder.

You may not transfer your domain name registration to another holder (i) during a pending administrative proceeding brought pursuant to Paragraph 4 or for a period of fifteen (15) business days (as observed in the location of our principal place of business) after such proceeding is concluded; or (ii) during a pending court proceeding or arbitration commenced regarding your domain name unless the party to whom the domain name registration is being transferred agrees, in writing, to be bound by the decision of the court or arbitrator. We reserve the right to cancel any transfer of a domain name registration to another holder that is made in violation of this subparagraph.

b. Changing Registrars. You may not transfer your domain name registration to another registrar during a pending administrative proceeding brought pursuant to Paragraph 4 or for a period of fifteen (15) business days (as observed in the location of our principal place of business) after such proceeding is concluded. You may transfer administration of your domain name registration to another registrar during a pending court action or arbitration, provided that the domain name you have registered with us shall continue to be subject to the proceedings commenced against you in accordance with the terms of this Policy. In the event that you transfer a domain name registration to us during the pendency of a court action or arbitration, such dispute shall remain subject to the domain name dispute policy of the registrar from which the domain name registration was transferred.

9. Policy Modifications. We reserve the right to modify this Policy at any time with the permission of ICANN. We will post our revised Policy at <URL> at least thirty (30) calendar days before it becomes effective. Unless this Policy has already been invoked by the submission of a complaint to a Provider, in which event the version of the Policy in effect at the time it was invoked will apply to you until the dispute is over, all such changes will be binding upon you with respect to any domain name registration dispute, whether the dispute arose before, on or after the effective date of our change. In the event that you object to a change in this Policy, your sole remedy is to cancel your domain name registration with us, provided that you will not be entitled to a refund of any fees you paid to us. The revised Policy will apply to you until you cancel your domain name registration

Work address 1229 4th Street Santa Monica CA 90401 (310)526-2700

On 9/7/10 at approximately 1355 hours Officer Steve Perez #3418 and I, Officer Jeff Glaser #3485 responded to the a radio call of a disturbance at the Delphi Academy located at 1229 4th street. (The Delphi Academy is a private elementary school with attending children ranging in age from 4 to 10 years old. It is located adjacent to the St. Augustine Church)

Upon our arrival we heard and observed a male white standing on the church property, adjacent to the black railing that separates the church and the school. The suspect, later identified s Donald James Myers was yelling in an aggressive manner toward the school that had several children present. I heard him say, "This school will be shut down! You are brainwashing these children!"

Myers was wearing a multi colored "tie dyed" shirt, blue jeans and had a black camera hanging from his neck. Myers complied when I asked him to stop yelling to and talk to us on the sidewalk. We asked him what he was doing and he told us he was an activist protesting the school because they teach "Scientology," For further information, see Ofr. Perez's attached supplemental.

Officer Sean Stockwell #3349 was also on scene and asked Myers if we could look at the pictures he took of the school and the children. Myers agreed. Numerous photos were found and Myers pointed out to us how he leaned into the window along 4th street and took pictures of the classroom containing children, who according to him, "were being brainwashed."

I talked with the Delphi Academy Director, Leslie Toth. Toth told me she has had a history of Myers coming to her school and disturbing the staff and children. The most recent event occurred on 8/4/10 in which Myers was listed as the suspect for disturbing the peace. During that incident he was yelling similar statements and was taking pictures of the school, staff and children. He was told to leave or he would be arrested. Myers left prior to the arrival of the officers. For further, see attached report, DR 10-81351. Toth also provided reports of incidents they documented since August of 2008 regarding Myers and his constant disturbing and harassing of the school. Again, for further, see the attached paperwork.

Toth said she was working in her office when she was told by one of her teachers that a man was leaning against the window that faces 4th street with a camera trying to take pictures of the children. Toth recognized the man as "Myers" and had the students and the teacher vacate the room. Myers then entered on the church property and began yelling derogatory comments towards the direction of the school to where it could be heard by both staff and children. Toth put the school on lockdown by having all the students enter a secured classroom.

SANTA MONICA POLICE DEPARTMENT
Continuation report

Toth saw Myers walk up a stairwell that is the access to the second floor of the church. She said this gave Myers an aerial view of the outside play area of the school as he appeared to be taking more pictures. Toth told him to leave. Myers came down, yelled and walked away. About 30 seconds later he returned and walked up to the locked access gate. (It should be noted that area at the gate is the property of the Delphi Academy and there is video surveillance of Myers on the property. At the time of this report, Toth was unable to provide a copy of the video) Myers then began walking back and forth along the railing as he continued to yell and take photographs. Toth heard Myers yell, "I want to shut this school down! I am going to shut this school down!"

Toth said a male parent came to pick up his child and tried to have Myers stop his actions. Toth heard the parent tell Myers, "Do you know there are kids in there?" Myers replied, "I don't care!" The parent said, "Can't you do this somewhere else, you're disturbing the children?" "I know, I want to," Myers' replied. Toth also heard Myers tell the parent, "I'm trying to stop Scientology. Scientology is brainwashing."

Toth, who was visibly upset from the incident, said she is fearful that Myers is becoming increasingly aggressive in his protest of the school and is concerned for everyone's safety. In addition, she expressed to me that she is unable to provide her services to the children in an environment that is being caused by Myers.

Teacher Shannon Jane Mills said she was fearful for the children's safety due to the aggressive nature being displayed by Myers. Mills said she secured the four children, ages 3-5 in the classroom and had to turn on music to a loud level to try and drown out Myers screaming. One of the children said to her, "He is so loud, he is scary." Mills said Myers' actions were not only frightening, but caused her to not be able to conduct her class as planned. She was unable to work and the children could not concentrate on their work. Mills said she saw Myers trying to take many photos of her and the children through the windows.

I should be noted that prior to the arrest of Myers, Church Administrator, Carrie Price from the St. Augustine church accompanied me and talked to Myers. Myers was instructed under the authority of the Price, he was not welcome on the property and if he returned, he would be arrested for trespassing. Myers said he understood and agreed that he would no longer enter onto the property.

Officer Perez booked the camera and three memory cards Myers had in possession into evidence. (See the attached property report for further) Contained on the memory card in the camera were photographs of the Delphi Academy. Eleven pictures were found, two included pictures of children with an adult.

Attached is a Statement of Private Person's Arrest Form signed by Toth requesting we arrest Myers for disturbing the peace, 415(2)PC and trespassing, 602(o)PC. Due to Myers' medical conditions, he was issued citation #608278 with a return court date of 10/7/10.

SANTA MONICA POLICE DEPARTMENT
Continuation report

Due to the increasing aggressive behavior from Myers and her fear that he may become physically aggressive towards her staff and the students, Toth and I requests that a stay away order be granted prohibiting Myers from the area of 1229 4th Street.

On 09-07-10, my partner Ofc. Jeff Glaser (#3485) and I, Ofc. Steven Perez (#3418) were working patrol, in uniform, and driving a marked police vehicle. At approximately 1353 hours we were dispatched to 1229 4th Street (Delphi Academy) regarding a male subject who was yelling outside the school ground and reportedly frightening children in their classrooms.

Ofc. Glaser and I responded to the location and observed a subject, later identified as S-1/ Donald James Myers, screaming unintelligible statements to the occupants inside of the Delphi Academy located 1229 4th Street. Myers was first observed screaming from a location outside the north windows and courtyard of the Delphi Academy. Ofc. Glaser later determined that the location where Myers was screaming from was on private property belonging to St. Augustine's Church located at 1227 4th Street.

Ofc. Glaser and I contacted the subject and asked him to remove himself from St. Augustine's property so that we could speak with him. Myers walked over to our location on the east sidewalk of the 1200 Block of 4th Street. At my request, Myers provided me with his identification and began to explain to me his purpose for screaming at the occupants of the Delphi Academy. I explained to Myers that he was not under arrest and that we received a complaint that he was frightening the children with his screaming. Myers proceeded to tell me that he was yelling at the occupants of the Academy because he was an activist who wanted to expose the Academy for its teachings of Scientology to "innocent" children. Myers continued to explain to me that the Delphi Academy was secretly exploiting these children in an attempt to obtain blackmail information on their parents who were members of Scientology. While I was speaking with Myers, Ofc. Glaser met with the staff members of the Delphi Academy and St. Augustine's church.

After Ofc. Glaser met with staff members, he advised me that they had desired prosecution for loitering and disturbing the peace. For further on the statements and information that Ofc. Glaser obtained, refer to his original crime report with the same DR#.

Re: People v. MYERS, DONALD JAMES
DR#: 100094751 Case #: 0WA24205

Dear Ms. Toth:

We have recently concluded the prosecution of a criminal case in which you were a victim. The defendant was convicted and placed on summary probation. As a result, the defendant must now obey certain terms of probation, including a Stay Away Order. The specifics of the order are set forth on the form attached to this letter. The Stay Away Order is also on file with the Santa Monica Police Department.

If you become aware that the defendant is violating the terms of the Stay Away Order, call the Santa Monica Police Department. If the police determine that a violation has occurred, they can arrest the defendant for a violation of probation. If the defendant violates any other law, an arrest can also be made for that separate offense.

Most defendants obey the terms of probation. We hope that the Stay Away Order will be effective in this case. However, if the defendant does violate the order, please do not hesitate to call the police to enforce it.

If you do need to call the police, have the enclosed form available, so you can prove necessary information.

Please let us know if you have any questions regarding this matter.

Sincerely,

Terry L. White
Deputy City Attorney

I regret to inform you that my client is adamant he is not interested in selling the name of his website, at least for $3,400.00. I will be around all day if you still want to try and work something out with him.

Meanwhile, congratulations on your new address and telephone number. I have noted it. "Beautiful downtown Burbank" as Johnny Carson used to say.

And a happy New Year to you and OSA.

I am now instructed by my client to advise you that your offer of $3,000 barely covers his pro bono website design costs at a typical hourly rate of $50.00 per hour plus the $20 per month webhosting fee he has been paying every month since he launched the website.

Accordingly, he is willing to sell the domain name www.kendrickmoxon.com for $10,000.

It is simply because a partnership cannot retain its funds past the end of the year, or the partners have to pay taxes on money the partnership has on hand in their accounts as if it was paid to them personally. Kendrick Lichty Moxon is a Scientology official and an attorney with the law firm Moxon & Kobrin. He practices in Los Angeles, California, and is a lead counsel for the Church of Scientology. Moxon received a B.A. from American University in 1972, and a J.D. degree from George Mason University in 1981. He was admitted to the Washington, D.C. bar association in 1984, and the State Bar of California in 1987. Moxon's early work for the Church of Scientology involved legal affairs, and he also held the title of "reverend". He worked out of the Scientology intelligence agency known as the Guardian's Office (GO), and was named as an unindicted co-conspirator after the Federal Bureau of Investigation's investigation into criminal activities by Scientology operatives called "Operation Snow White".^{[1][2][3]} An evidence stipulation in the case signed by both parties stated he had provided false handwriting samples to the FBI; Moxon has since said that he did not "knowingly supply" false handwriting samples.^[3]

The bulk of Moxon's legal work is Scientology-related. He has served as Commissioner of the Scientology-affiliated organization Citizens Commission on Human Rights (CCHR). He represented the Church of Scientology in 1988 in a billion-dollar class action lawsuit against the organization by former Scientologists which was dismissed in Los Angeles Superior Court. In 1990 Moxon represented the organization in a suit against the Internal Revenue Service in an attempt to gain access to information about Scientology held by the IRS. He assisted 50 Scientologists in filing separate lawsuits against the organization Cult Awareness Network (CAN), which led to the bankruptcy of the organization. He represented the plaintiff in the Jason Scott case against CAN and cult deprogrammer Rick Ross.

A Scientology publication said Moxon had used church doctrine in bringing down CAN. Its assets were bought in bankruptcy court by a Scientologist and legal associate of Moxon's. Moxon said he was proud of what he had done, referring to the old CAN organization as a "hate group". Moxon represented the manager of the Scientology facility Golden Era Productions in a filing against Keith Henson, a critic of Scientology. Moxon filed an affidavit in 2000 in the case involving the criminal prosecution of the Church of Scientology in the death of Scientologist Lisa McPherson, and defended her treatment by Scientology staffers as part of a religious practice.

Early life and family

Moxon was born in Pennsylvania.^[4] He graduated from American University in 1972 with a B.A. degree in Anthropology.^[5] He received his J.D. degree from George Mason University in 1981.^[5] He was admitted to the bar of Washington, D.C. on September 6, 1984,^[6] and the State Bar of California on June 17, 1987.^{[7][8]}

In 1979, Moxon and Carla Smith had a daughter, Stacy Grove Meyer.^[4] Meyer died on June 25, 2000 after she fell off a ladder and was electrocuted after touching a 7,200-volt wire while working at Golden Era Productions.^{[9][10]} Golden Era Productions was cited by the California Division of Occupational Safety and Health for improper wiring precautions near a vault where Grove Meyer had been working.^[10] The California Occupational Safety and Health Administration investigated the incident,^[11] and determined that her death was not related to the safety violations at the facility.^[10] Grove Meyer had worked for two years at Golden Era Productions in landscaping and maintenance.^{[10][12]}

Guardian's Office

In 1977, Moxon served as an official of the Church of Scientology, and held the title of "reverend".^[13] His role within the organization in 1977 was called "Director of the Ministry of Legal Affairs of the Founding Church of Scientology".^[14] Along with Scientology founder L. Ron Hubbard and nineteen other Scientologists, Moxon was named as an unindicted co-conspirator after the Federal Bureau of Investigation's investigation into criminal activities by Scientology operatives called "Operation Snow White".^{[1][2][3]} At the time of the indictments and investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the Operation Snow White case, Moxon was working in the church intelligence agency then known as the Guardian's Office (GO).^{[1][3][15]} Operation Snow White was the name coined by Scientology founder L. Ron Hubbard for a mission by the organization's intelligence division to illegally obtain documents from the United States government.^[3] As part of Operation Snow White, members of the Guardian's Office broke into U.S. government offices including those of the Internal Revenue Service, in order to steal documents relating to Scientology.^[3]

A 1979 stipulation of evidence signed by officials for Scientology states that Moxon provided false handwriting samples of GO operative Michael Meisner to the FBI.^{[3][16]} Both parties to the case were in agreement that Moxon responded to an October 14, 1976 subpoena titled "Grand Jury subpoena for all original known handwriting exemplars of Michael Meisner and the employment application and personnel records of Mr. Meisner in the possession of the Church of Scientology" by providing "fake handwriting samples in lieu of Mr. Meisner's true handwriting exemplars" to the United States government.^[16] The stipulation stated Moxon was "directed to supply the government with fake handwriting samples".^[1] Nine Scientologists signed the stipulation as part of a plea bargain.^[1] According to a 1976 letter from the "District of Columbia Security Office" of the Guardian's Office, "Rick Moxon" and four other individuals had either "full data or almost all of it", about covert operations against the United States government.^[17] According to the Guardian's Office letter, Moxon was prevented under penalty of a US$50,000 fine from disclosing his knowledge of the church cover operations.^[17] The non-disclosure agreement was titled "Covenant of Non-Disclosure; 'Doomsday Agreement'".^[17] The letter told an official for the Church of Scientology to instruct Moxon "if they do talk, then they will be expelled forever, hounded by the GO [Guardian Office] until doomsday, and left to rot in the Physical Universe".^[17]

Moxon stated to the Phoenix New Times that the stipulation of evidence was written by FBI agents and signed by church officials.^[3] He asserted that he did not "knowingly supply" samples of false handwriting to the FBI, and said that he was investigated by bar associations for California and Washington, D.C. before being admitted to the respective bar associations.^[3] According to the Phoenix New Times, Moxon is "in good standing" with both bar associations.^[3] Former church intelligence operative Frank Oliver told the Phoenix New Times that in his work for the replacement to the Guardian's Office, the Office of Special Affairs, his last assignment for the organization was to assist Moxon in setting up a special unit focused on the Cult Awareness Network.^[3] Oliver stated that the goal of his work with Moxon was to recruit individuals who would become plaintiffs in lawsuits against the Cult Awareness Network.^[3]

Church of Scientology attorney

Early work

Moxon acted as attorney for the Church of Scientology in 1988 when former Scientologists sued the organization in a billion-dollar class action lawsuit.^[18] According to Moxon the former Scientologists included some members who were subject to excommunication, and they requested the return of donations they had made to the organization, as well as payment for time working on its behalf.^[18] The case was dismissed by a Los Angeles Superior Court judge, and Moxon characterized the plaintiffs as "a few former members who apparently banded together for the purpose of making a monetary killing".^[18]

In 1990 Moxon represented the Church of Scientology in a lawsuit against the Internal Revenue Service in an attempt to gain access to government documents on the organization.^[19] "The actions taken by the IRS in this case are typical of the agency's harassive treatment of religious groups," said Moxon in a statement in The Fresno Bee.^[19] During the Church of Scientology's battle with the IRS, Moxon's law firm hired private investigators to investigate the government agency.^[20] Private investigator Michael L. Shomers said he set up a dummy operation called "Washington News Bureau", posed as a reporter, and attempted to collection material on Scientology critics.^[20] Shomers also said he infiltrated IRS conferences in attempts to collect data on IRS employees that may have been skipping appointments, drinking or having affairs.^[20] Shomers said he was either paid in cash or by checks from Moxon's firm Bowles & Moxon.^[20] According to The New York Times, Moxon said Shomers' activities were legal, and that he and other Scientology attorneys used private investigators to counter falsehoods from "rogue government agents".^[20]

Cult Awareness Network litigation

Moxon assisted Scientologists in filing 50 lawsuits against the Cult Awareness Network (CAN), which eventually led to the bankruptcy of the organization.^{[21][22]} Moxon confirmed to the St. Petersburg Times that his firm assisted the Scientologists with their litigation against CAN for mostly no charge, and that Scientology churches "helped a little bit, but very little" with the case.^[23] Moxon asserted that his legal services were requested by individual Scientologists because of his religious discrimination litigation experience.^[1] "These were filed by [individual] Scientologists who were victimized by CAN. That's the long and short of it," said Moxon.^[1] Moxon stated to 60 Minutes "They didn't--they didn't spring up serendipitously. A number of Scientologists came to our firm and said, I'm being discriminated against by CAN."^[24]

Jason Scott of the Life Tabernacle Church in Bellevue, Washington was taken from his home in 1991 and subjected to "deprogramming".^[25] Deprogrammer Rick Ross had been referred to Scott's mother by a local volunteer for CAN, and Moxon represented Scott in a lawsuit against Ross and CAN.^[25] Moxon took on Jason Scott's case pro bono.^[26] According to a 60 Minutes report on Scientology's actions against the Cult Awareness Network, two affidavits used by Moxon in the case were false.^[24] Scott won a jury judgment of US$5 million including $1.8 million against CAN,^[23] and CAN later declared bankruptcy.^[25] After the CAN organization was purchased in bankruptcy court by a Scientology attorney, Scott fired Moxon and hired Graham Berry, a Los Angeles lawyer who had previously represented clients in suits against the Church of Scientology.^[23] Scott and Ross settled in 1996 for $5,000 and 200 hours of time from Ross for his intervention services.^[25]

Scott stated that he felt he had been manipulated as part of the Church of Scientology's plan to destroy CAN.^[23] According to the Chicago Tribune, Scott and his relatives felt Moxon was not paying enough attention to Scott's financial judgment, and was instead focused on a "personal vendetta" against CAN.^[27] "Basically, Jason said he was tired of being the poster boy for the Scientologists. My son has never been a member of the Church of Scientology. When he was approached by Moxon, he was lured by his promises of a $1 million settlement, so he went for it," said Scott's mother Katherine Tonkin in a statement to the Chicago Tribune.^[27]

After Scott fired Moxon, Moxon filed emergency motions in two states and alleged Scott had been influenced by supporters of CAN to hire Berry as his lawyer.^[28] "He's really been abused by CAN and disgustingly abused by this guy Berry," said Moxon in a statement in The Washington Post.^[28] Moxon, who had argued in the case that Ross and associates had hindered a competent adult's freedom to make his own religious decisions, immediately filed court papers seeking to rescind the settlement and appoint a guardian for Scott, whom he called "incapacitated." That effort failed.^{[29][30]} Jason Scott stated he felt he had been a "pawn" in Scientology's "whole game".^[1]

Moxon was involved in the sale of CAN's confidential files when the organization was in bankruptcy proceedings.^[31] Individuals that had confided in the prior version of the CAN organization expressed anxiety about their confidential files being sold to other groups, but Moxon stated: "People who have committed crimes don't want them to be revealed."^[31] Moxon's former legal associate, Scientologist Steven Hayes, purchased the assets of the Cult Awareness Network in bankruptcy court.^[1] In 2000, Moxon co-authored a paper on the Cult Awareness Network with Anson D. Shupe and Susan E. Darnell.^[32] The paper, titled "CAN, We Hardly Knew Ye: Sex, Drugs, Deprogrammers' Kickbacks, and Corporate Crime in the (Old) Cult Awareness Network", was presented at the 2000 meeting of the Society for the Scientific Study of Religion in Houston, Texas.^[32] The old "CAN no longer exists because it was a hate group that destroyed families. I'm very proud of what I've done," said Moxon in a statement in The American Lawyer.^[1]

According to a Scientology publication, Moxon utilized Scientology doctrine to bring about the demise of the Cult Awareness Network.^[33] The publication, authored by Scientology official Kurt Weiland, stated: "A civil case was filed by the victim against [Rick] Ross and the Cult Awareness Network. This time he had an attorney who knew what he was doing and understood PTS/SP tech! The attorney was a Scientologist and OT [Operating Thetan] Rick Moxon."^[33] "PTS/SP tech" is Scientology terminology referring to the organization's founder L. Ron Hubbard's prescribed tactics of handling enemies called "suppressive persons" (SPs) and their associates, called "potential trouble sources" (PTSs).^[33] The Cult Awareness Network was seen by Scientology as a "SP" organization.^[33]

Subsequent legal efforts

Moxon represented manager Ken Hoden of the Church of Scientology's Golden Era Productions in February 1998 when he filed a restraining order against Keith Henson after Henson protested against Scientology in May 1997 and January 1998 outside the Golden Era film studios in Gilman Hot Springs, California.^[34] Moxon had argued that Henson was dangerous based on comments critical of Scientologists he had posted on the Internet, and his knowledge in the fields of cryonics and explosives.^[34] Hoden received a temporary restraining order against Henson,^[35] but the Riverside Superior Court judge refused to make the restraining order permanent.^[34]

In 1999, Moxon represented members of the Seventh-day Adventists and Unification Church in a lawsuit against a Maryland state task force which was investigating the effects of religious cults on college campuses.^[36] The Unification Church and Seventh-day Adventists members claimed that their constitutional rights were violated and described the "Task Force to Study the Effects of Cult Activities on Public Senior Higher Education Institutions" as a "religious inquisition".^[36]

With fellow Scientology attorney Helena Kobrin, Moxon filed an affidavit in Pinellas-Pasco Circuit Court in March 2000, complaining to the judge about the criminal prosecution of the Church of Scientology related to the death of Lisa McPherson.^[37] They claimed that the prosecution held an "extreme religious bias" and a "narrow-minded concept of a church".^[37] They defended the practice of the Scientology staffers that had kept Lisa McPherson at the Fort Harrison Hotel in Clearwater, Florida, asserting they had been involved in the "Introspection Rundown", which they called an "entirely religious" practice developed by Scientology founder L. Ron Hubbard.^[37] They wrote that "Forcing a Scientologist to receive psychiatric services would be like forcing an Orthodox Jew to eat pork or forcing a devoted Catholic to have an abortion. It is simply unacceptable and unthinkable to our religious faith and conscience."^[38] Moxon said that the wrongful death lawsuit filed by members of McPherson's family against the Church of Scientology was "nothing more than a vehicle to say bad things about the church".^[39] The criminal prosecution in the Lisa McPherson case was dropped due to issues with record-keeping by the medical examiner; a wrongful death civil suit was settled in 2004.^[40]

According to Scientology general counsel Elliot Abelson, the bulk of Moxon's legal work is Scientology-related.^[1] In addition to his office with his law firm, as of 1997 Moxon also kept a legal office in the Church of Scientology's headquarters at Hollywood, Los Angeles, California.^[1] Moxon has also served as legal advisor to the Scientology-affiliated organization Citizens Commission on Human Rights (CCHR).^[41] According to a CCHR press release from 2001, Moxon represented CCHR International as its Commissioner.^[42]

ABOUT KENDRICK

EX PARTE ARGUMENTUM
AD HOMINEM

Many people recoil at the words "worst" or "lawyer." Put the two together and what does it mean? Is Kendrick Moxon America's worst lawyer because he always loses cases? No.

Although many of his legal filings are intended to harass, not win, he does win cases sometimes. No, Kendrick Moxon is America's worst lawyer strictly from a human being standpoint. If you think just BEING a lawyer is already as low as you can go in America then you better meet Kendrick Moxon!

As main in house counsel for the Church of Scientology he remained in the cult after his daughter committed suicide. She had been unable to leave Gold Base any other way. His son later fled the cult with his pregnant bride-to-be. She was being pressured to have an abortion as per the policy of their priesthood the Sea Org. The FBI considers him an unindicted co-conspirator in the 1970's era government break-ins of Operation Snow White.

This was the largest infiltration of the US government in it's history and continues today. How Moxon escaped the legal net which caught even cult founder L. Ron Hubbard's wife is unknown. But you can bet it was underhanded.

Scientology is sometimes assisted by outside law firms and legal counsel such as Elliot Abelson. That costs lots of money. Rick Moxon, however, works cheap because he is a true believer in Scientology.

2013 A BUSY YEAR FOR MOXON

A lifetime of bad behavior is coming back to haunt Scientology legally in 2013. Just 20 years after their epic battle against the IRS was won the cult is widely regarded to be in a death spiral. The 1993 decision by the IRS to give them tax exemption ended up being their high water mark. But now its members are no longer cowed and protesters continue to pressure them globally. Mr. Moxon finds himself more in-demand than ever as he attempts the impossible task of playing legal wack-amole with lawsuits from ex-Scientologists, non-Scientologists and state agencies. 2014 can only be worse.

Their first problem is multiple lawsuits involving their drug treatment center scam Narconon. First there were lawsuits and a raid in their Georgia facility regarding the death of a patient. Those raids led to discovery of multiple incidents of credit card and insurance fraud. Scientology's typical courtroom antics like perjury and faking evidence led to censure by a judge. Narconon GA cut a deal with state and local officials, lost its license and was closed. Meanwhile FOUR deaths at Narconon Arrowhead, their Oklahoma flagship facility, have spurred a class action lawsuit. The Oklahoma legislature passed a law aimed at stopping them. Most people who go to Narconon are not Scientologists and have no idea that they are going to be indoctrinated not cured. The people starting the class action against Narconon have no fear of losing their eternity by attacking the church. With deaths and investigations in Michigan and elsewhere Kendrick Moxon will have his hands full dealing with just this problem, but it is hardly the biggest threat. For the most recent news on this story click right here.

Meanwhile a Scientologist named Luis Garcia filed a federal lawsuit in January 2013 in Tampa accusing the Church of Scientology of using fraudulent, deceptive and high-pressure practices to coax millions of dollars from its members. In a scam only a Scientologist could fall for, he gave hundreds of thousands of dollars to pay for a never finished building that was supposed to turn him into a superman. This case is significant because, if they win, it will open the floodgates and former Scientologists will rush to sue to get their money back. Lawyers love money, and when they find that Scientology has billions of dollars that belong to their clients they will lose their fear of being "fair gamed" and go at the church with gusto. For the latest on this story just click here.

Most importantly, non-Scientologist Monique Rathbun has sued cult leader David Miscavige for harassment in Texas. Original story here. This case is very important and protester Karen de la Carriere has described it as "The beginning of the end of David in deposition, but that isn't the big deal. The real scare for the cult, and why they sent so many lawyers to this tiny Texas courthouse, is that, if she wins, it will strip away all the false fronts and interlocking fake entities from Miscavige and allow him to be sued directly for the sins of his organization. That's because he is the supreme ruler and nobody in the cult makes a major legal or harassment move without his okay. He micromanages everything, including abuse. And, if she wins, it will show that the cult is still "fair gaming" enemies, something it promised the IRS it would not do. This would almost certainly cause the US government to re-examine it's deal with the cult and put it's tax exempt status as a 501c3 organization in serious jeopardy. The cult has already admitted the harassment in court but claims that this aggressive behavior is part of their religion and protected by free speech! Even more amazing, reporters and ex-cultists who have come to watch the proceedings now say they are being followed just like Monique Rathbun, the plaintiff, says the cult has been doing to her! Before becoming Scientology's lead in-house attorney, he worked in the Church's Guardian's Office (subsequently usurped by the Office of Special Affairs) under Mary Sue Hubbard.

Scientology Inc Lawyers admit to 199-day intimi...

Miscavige." They have already caught him perjuring himself

During Operation Snow White, in which eleven Scientologists pleaded guilty or were convicted in federal court, Moxon was listed as an unindicted co-conspirator for providing false handwriting samples to the FBI in response to a Grand Jury subpoena. According to the Phoenix New Times, Moxon has stated that "he didn't knowingly supply false handwriting samples and that the stipulation of evidence was something signed by church officials but written by FBI agents. He says the matter was thoroughly investigated by two bar associations – in D.C. and in California – before they admitted him as an attorney.

Moxon is in good standing with the bar associations in both jurisdictions. -- MORE HERE.

Scientologist Carla Moxon tells bizarre "story" about Kendrick

Scientologist Carla Moxon tells a "story" about...

Scientologist Carla Moxon is married to notorious Church lawyer Kendrick Moxon of Kendrick from a performance at "Toastmasters" Carla tells an exclusive "story" about her and her husband.

Carla has reached the highest level of Scientology training: New OT 8. Despite this her performance is pathetic and bizarre. Completely lacking the communications skills the cult claims to enable, she tells a bizarre sci fi story that seems more about being unable to tell fiction from reality than about waking the crowd awake.

Her daughter committed suicide to escape from Scientology. Her son and daughter in law filed a lawsuit to prevent their unborn child from being aborted.

Carla's husband demanded that the fetus be killed as per Church orders. This is the only known case of this kind, quite rare and has newsworthy interest.

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Richardson,)
)	Case No. 2012 CA 009030 B Plaintiff,)
v.)
Applied Scholastics International,)

MOTION TO DISMISS

Pursuant to Rule 12(b) of the D.C. Superior Court Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendant, Applied Scholastics International (“ASI”), hereby moves to dismiss the Complaint for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. The Complaint is vague, ambiguous and fails clearly to state what alleged contract was breached, when, by who, for what, and what alleged breach occurred, and how plaintiff was allegedly damaged.

THE VAGUE AND AMBIGUOUS COMPLAINT SHOULD BE DISMISSED

Plaintiff Cheryl Richardson’s four sentence complaint asserts that defendant ASI, a California corporation, breached a contract with her. However, the cursory Complaint provides no clear information permitting the defendant to respond to the Complaint, lacking even cursory allegations regarding the exact nature of the dispute.

For example:

- The Complaint does not does not append the alleged contract at issue, which the plaintiff claims was breached.
- It does not say what the obligations were under the alleged contract and thus allege a breach thereunder.

- The Complaint does indicate that plaintiff was a “coordinator” for something or someone, but does not specify the nature of this alleged position, nor that it has something do with the alleged breach.
- The Complaint fails to state when any event took place, or that it was within the statute of limitations of any potential cause of action.
- No specific legally cognizable cause of action is identified for which the plaintiff is entitled to any relief.
- No allegations are made which would justify or explain the basis for the alleged $350,000 injury.

In short, plaintiff has no reasonable idea of the scope of the Complaint, exactly what it is being haled into court to defend, or how or what to defend. This state of affairs makes it impossible to answer the speculative and vague Complaint or to determine what defenses may be available to the vague and ambiguous claims. “Factual allegations must be enough to raise a right to relief above the speculative level...” Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, ----, 127 S.Ct. 1955, 1965, 167 L.Ed.2d 929 (2007).

Dismissal under Rule 12(b)(6) is appropriate where the complaint fails to allege the elements of a legally viable claim. Jordan Keys & Jessamy, 870 A.2d at 62 (affirming dismissal for failure to state a claim; “We agree with the trial judge that Jordan Keys’ amended complaint, viewed in the light most favorable to the pleader, does not allege the elements of an implied-in-fact contract.”); Taylor v. FDIC, 328 U.S.App.D.C. 52, 60, 132 F.3d 753, 761 (1997) (“Dismissal under Rule 12(b)(6) is proper when, taking the material allegations of the complaint as admitted, and construing them in plaintiffs’ favor, the court finds that the plaintiffs have failed to allege all the material elements of their cause of action.”) (citations omitted).

To be sure, “complaints need not plead law or match facts to every element of a legal theory,” but “the pleader must set forth sufficient information to outline the legal elements of a viable claim for relief or to permit inferences to be drawn from the complaint that indicate that these elements exist.” Chamberlain v. American Honda

Finance Corp., 931 A.2d 1018, 1023 (2007), quoting Krieger v. Fadely, 341 U.S.App.D.C. 163, 165, 211 F.3d 134, 136 (2000) and 5B Charles Alan Wright & Arthur R. Miller, Federal Practice and Procedure: Civil 3d § 1357, at 683 (2004). “Despite the liberality of modern rules of pleading, a complaint still must contain either direct or inferential allegations respecting all the material elements necessary to sustain a recovery under some viable legal theory.” Chamberlain v. American Honda Finance Corp., 931 A.2d at 1023, quoting In re Plywood Antitrust Litigation, 655 F.2d 627, 641 (5th Cir. 1981)

CONCLUSION

Defendant has no reasonable basis to know how to respond to the cursory, vague and ambiguous allegations.

Defendant accordingly requests that the action be dismissed.

Dated: December 26, 2012

OPERATION SNOW WHITE OVERVIEW - LEGAL DOCS

DAUGHTER'S ALLEGED SUICIDE

KENDRICK MOXON IS NOT "AT CAUSE" OVER THIS WEBSITE

NEWS

ABOUT KENDRICK

EX PARTE ARGUMENTUM
AD HOMINEM

Many people recoil at the words "worst" or "lawyer." Put the two together and what does it mean? Is Kendrick Moxon America's worst lawyer because he always loses cases? No.

Although many of his legal filings are intended to harass, not win, he does win cases sometimes. No, Kendrick Moxon is America's worst lawyer strictly from a human being standpoint. If you think just BEING a lawyer is already as low as you can go in America then you better meet Kendrick Moxon!

As main in house counsel for the Church of Scientology he remained in the cult after his daughter committed suicide. She had been unable to leave Gold Base any other way. His son later fled the cult with his pregnant bride-to-be. She was being pressured to have an abortion as per the policy of their priesthood the Sea Org. The FBI considers him an unindicted co-conspirator in the 1970's era government break-ins of Operation Snow White.

This was the largest infiltration of the US government in it's history and continues today. How Moxon escaped the legal net which caught even cult founder L. Ron Hubbard's wife is unknown. But you can bet it was underhanded.

Scientology is sometimes assisted by outside law firms and legal counsel such as Elliot Abelson. That costs lots of money. Rick Moxon, however, works cheap because he is a true believer in Scientology.

2013 A BUSY YEAR FOR MOXON

A lifetime of bad behavior is coming back to haunt Scientology legally in 2013. Just 20 years after their epic battle against the IRS was won the cult is widely regarded to be in a death spiral. The 1993 decision by the IRS to give them tax exemption ended up being their high water mark. But now its members are no longer cowed and protesters continue to pressure them globally. Mr. Moxon finds himself more in-demand than ever as he attempts the impossible task of playing legal wack-amole with lawsuits from ex-Scientologists, non-Scientologists and state agencies. 2014 can only be worse.

Their first problem is multiple lawsuits involving their drug treatment center scam Narconon. First there were lawsuits and a raid in their Georgia facility regarding the death of a patient. Those raids led to discovery of multiple incidents of credit card and insurance fraud. Scientology's typical courtroom antics like perjury and faking evidence led to censure by a judge. Narconon GA cut a deal with state and local officials, lost its license and was closed. Meanwhile FOUR deaths at Narconon Arrowhead, their Oklahoma flagship facility, have spurred a class action lawsuit. The Oklahoma legislature passed a law aimed at stopping them. Most people who go to Narconon are not Scientologists and have no idea that they are going to be indoctrinated not cured. The people starting the class action against Narconon have no fear of losing their eternity by attacking the church. With deaths and investigations in Michigan and elsewhere Kendrick Moxon will have his hands full dealing with just this problem, but it is hardly the biggest threat. For the most recent news on this story click right here.

Meanwhile a Scientologist named Luis Garcia filed a federal lawsuit in January 2013 in Tampa accusing the Church of Scientology of using fraudulent, deceptive and high-pressure practices to coax millions of dollars from its members. In a scam only a Scientologist could fall for, he gave hundreds of thousands of dollars to pay for a never finished building that was supposed to turn him into a superman. This case is significant because, if they win, it will open the floodgates and former Scientologists will rush to sue to get their money back. Lawyers love money, and when they find that Scientology has billions of dollars that belong to their clients they will lose their fear of being "fair gamed" and go at the church with gusto. For the latest on this story just click here.

Most importantly, non-Scientologist Monique Rathbun has sued cult leader David Miscavige for harassment in Texas. Original story here. This case is very important and protester Karen de la Carriere has described it as "The beginning of the end of David

Scientology Inc Lawyers admit to 199-day intimi...

Miscavige." They have already caught him perjuring himself

in deposition, but that isn't the big deal. The real scare for the cult, and why they sent so many lawyers to this tiny Texas courthouse, is that, if she wins, it will strip away all the false fronts and interlocking fake entities from Miscavige and allow him to be sued directly for the sins of his organization. That's because he is the supreme ruler and nobody in the cult makes a major legal or harassment move without his okay. He micromanages everything, including abuse. And, if she wins, it will show that the cult is still "fair gaming" enemies, something it promised the IRS it would not do. This would almost certainly cause the US government to re-examine it's deal with the cult and put it's tax exempt status as a 501c3 organization in serious jeopardy. The cult has already admitted the harassment in court but claims that this aggressive behavior is part of their religion and protected by free speech! Even more amazing, reporters and ex-cultists who have come to watch the proceedings now say they are being followed just like Monique Rathbun, the plaintiff, says the cult has been doing to her! For the most recent updates on this case visit Tony Ortega's blog.

FROM WIKIPEDIA

Kendrick Lichty Moxon holds a B.A. in Anthropology and a Doctorate of Jurisprudence from George Mason University. Before becoming Scientology's lead in-house attorney, he worked in the Church's Guardian's Office (subsequently usurped by the Office of Special Affairs) under Mary Sue Hubbard.

During Operation Snow White, in which eleven Scientologists pleaded guilty or were convicted in federal court, Moxon was listed as an unindicted co-conspirator for providing false handwriting samples to the FBI in response to a Grand Jury subpoena. According to the Phoenix New Times, Moxon has stated that "he didn't knowingly supply false handwriting samples and that the stipulation of evidence was something signed by church officials but written by FBI agents. He says the matter was thoroughly investigated by two bar associations – in D.C. and in California – before they admitted him as an attorney.

Moxon is in good standing with the bar associations in both jurisdictions. -- MORE HERE.

Scientologist Carla Moxon tells bizarre "story" about Kendrick

Scientologist Carla Moxon tells a "story" about...

Scientologist Carla Moxon is married to notorious Church lawyer Kendrick Moxon of Kendrick from a performance at "Toastmasters" Carla tells an exclusive "story" about her and her husband.

Carla has reached the highest level of Scientology training: New OT 8. Despite this her performance is pathetic and bizarre. Completely lacking the communications skills the cult claims to enable, she tells a bizarre sci fi story that seems more about being unable to tell fiction from reality than about waking the crowd awake.

Her daughter committed suicide to escape from Scientology. Her son and daughter in law filed a lawsuit to prevent their unborn child from being aborted.

Carla's husband demanded that the fetus be killed as per Church orders. This is the only known case of this kind, quite rare and has newsworthy interest.

THE BATTLE OVER THIS WEBSITE

1. KENDRICK MOXON THE MAN PROTESTS KENDRICK MOXON THE WEBSITE

Oh this will be time consuming and distracting for Scientology to mop up.

2. THE EMPIRE STRIKES BACK

Everyone remembers their first AvaGram.

Did you know that the double cross symbol predates Scientology? Sometimes these cultists act like they invented the double cross. But they didn't.
